

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

We have heard them say refers to the statements and speeches made by political candidates during the 2019 Lok Sabha elections.

To know exactly what they said , you would need access to their speeches ,interviews, and public statements which might be available in various sources such as news articles , transcripts, and official campaign materials

To conduct a quantitative analysis of candidates in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections ,you would typically gather data on various aspects like campaign spending ,vote share, demographics ,and issues addressed

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Political ambition : Many candidates aspire to gain political power and influence to enact policies they believe in or to serve their constituents better .their hopes and dreams may revolve around achieving higher political office public service : some candidates genuinely want to serve their community or the nation and are driven by a sense of duty and a desire to address the needs and concerns of the people they represent

Ideological beliefs : candidates often have strong ideological beliefs and may be driven by a desire to promote and advance those beliefs , whether they are related to economic policy , social justice or other issues

Political Juggernauts : A Quantitative Analysis Of Candidates The 2019 Lok Sabha Elections

observed Behaviors
1. campaigning : Political juggernauts were observed actively campaigning in their constituencies ,holding rallies, public meetings ,and door outreach

Speeches and Debates: they engaged in public speeches, debates, and interviews to communicate their policy positions and vision to voters

Imagined Actions: 1. community engagement: Candidates could have organized community events and town hall meetings to directly connect with constituents

Fear :
Fear of losing the election and the associated loss of prestige and power

Frustration :
Frustration with bureaucratic hurdles and red tape in implementing policies

Other Feelings That Influence Behavior :
Confidence and optimism can drive them to campaign energetically

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?

See an example